

OUT & ABOUT

In each issue, Business 101 features photos of people out and about at recent business-related events around the Salinas area. Here is a selection of photos from the Aug. 21 Soledad-Mission Chamber of Commerce breakfast with U.S. Rep. Sam Farr; the Aug. 27 Business Leadership Plan for Pandemic Influenza; the Aug. 23 Marina Chamber of Commerce meeting; the Aug. 28 graduation ceremony for the Women Business Education and Loan Program and the Aug. 29 ribbon-cutting at Enterprise Rent-A-Car in Marina.

RICARDO DOLZ/BUSINESS 101

Mary Wright, one of the sponsors of Women for Business Education and Loan Program, is introduced Aug. 28 to participants in the program at Las Comadres Restaurant in Salinas.

SCOTT MACDONALD/BUSINESS 101

U.S. Rep Sam Farr speaks at the Aug. 27 Soledad-Mission Chamber of Commerce breakfast meeting at Frankie's Grill in Soledad.

RICARDO DOLZ/BUSINESS 101

Bob, left, and Nancy Nolan attend the Aug. 23 Marina Chamber of Commerce Mixer.

RICARDO DOLZ/BUSINESS 101

Tammy Mast, from left, Mike Mast and Joyce Simon are seen Aug. 23 the Marina Chamber of Commerce Mixer.

Tobi Marcus, from left, Judy Sulsona and Karen Csejey attend the Aug. 28 graduation ceremony for the Women Business Education and Loan Program at Las Comadres Restaurant in Salinas.

RICARDO DOLZ/BUSINESS 101

PROVIDED PHOTO

The Marina Chamber of Commerce welcomed Enterprise Rent-a-Car to the city of Marina, with a new member ribbon-cutting celebration Aug. 29. Those present to welcome Enterprise were, from left, Kris Boudreau, Marina City Councilman Dave McCall, Marina Chamber of Commerce vice president Joe Sweeney, Marina City Councilman Gary Wilmot, Marina Mayor Ila Mettee-McCutchon, Gavin Abbott, Joe Ramos, Josh Placencia, Ben Hartel, and Marina Chamber of Commerce President Gwendolyn Wells.

RICARD GREEN/BUSINESS 101

Hugh F. Stallworth, health officer/medical director for Monterey County, talks Aug. 23 about the Avian Influenza at the Business Leadership Plan for Pandemic Influenza held at the ARIEL Theatrical Inc.'s Wilson Children's Theater in Salinas.