

ABOUT THIS SECTION

Like our community as a whole, The Salinas Californian has a long history with the Rodeo. Our staff enjoy reporting on the events and hoopla in our pages and participating themselves as volunteers and spectators.

Scott Faust

As always, we'll have complete coverage throughout the event, including competition results in our Friday, Saturday and Monday newspapers. We wouldn't miss the Rodeo, and we know you look forward to it, too.

So it's with special enthusiasm that our news, advertising and production staffs assembled this 64-page section showcasing the 96th annual California Rodeo Salinas. The 2006 Rodeo is bigger than ever, and excitement is building on the eve of opening day.

We hope you'll find this section entertaining and useful. It's intended for both knowledgeable fans of the sport and for folks who've never gotten close to a rodeo before.

Enjoy the this year's event!

— Scott Faust, general manager/executive editor

CONTENTS

Story	Page
Beyond the Rodeo	7
Your guide to the Rodeo	13
Guide to Big Week activities	14
Miss California Rodeo candidates	20
Meet first female director	23
Profile of Rodeo president	25
Cowboys have eye on prize	29
Last year's champions	39
What is 'slack time'?	35
Cowboys do wear pink	44
Safety at the Rodeo	45

ON OUR COVER

Frederic Remington; The Bronco Buster, not dated; Bronze; Monterey Museum of Art; Courtesy of the Louise M. Davies Foundation L83.56. The piece is on exhibition at the museum.

STAFF

Cover: Ryan Glenn

Cover Photo: Richard Green

Section editors: Katharine Ball and Mike Nemeth

Design editors: Jim Albanese, Michelle Burke, Dennis Mitchell, Tom Leyde and Donald Fukui

Photographers: Richard Green and Scott MacDonald

RICHARD GREEN/THE SALINAS CALIFORNIAN FILE PHOTO